Van Fleet Demands U.N. To Call Shots In Korea

Asks Backing For Rhee If Attack Is Launched

CHICAGO (INS)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet declared Thursday that the United Nations will not get anywhere with the Communists at Panmunjom and demanded that the U. N. start "calling the shots" in Korea now.

The former Eighth Army Commander in Korea said the Reds are stalling in the current peace negotiations and added: "You can't do business with gangsters. Nevertheless we should endeavor to try."

Van Fleet told a news conference that if Republic of Korea President Syngman Rhee attacks the Communists on his own, the United States should join in the attack. He declared:

"If Rhee decides for a good reason to fight on alone, we should back him. And if the enemy resumes his aggression, we should throw our full strength against him. That includes the atomic bomb and hydrogen bomb."

Gallant Ally

He said that the Republic of Korea was a gallant ally and said that the U. N. should allow Korea to furnish more fighting men, which he said the ROKs have been begging to do.

He added that Rhee often had pleaded with tears in his eyes to let the ROKs "shoulder more of the load."

Van Fleet stressed that he was speaking as a private citizen and not in an official capacity. The general recently retired and assumes a post as a director of 20th Century Fox Friday.

In a bitter personal attack on the Reds, Van Fleet declared that he believes the Communists "murdered my boy." He was referring to his airman son, James A. Van Fleet Jr., 26, a bomber pilot who was shot down in Korea in the middle of the war.

Van Fleet said the Reds had committed murder in pressuring American prisoners of war and feared that his son met a like fate.

Van Fleet told newsmen that the current peace talks are "not very promising," adding: "We should prepare for the worst, while hoping for the best."

He said that the wars going on in Burma and Indochina was the same war but "different fronts."

New Law To Hike Cost Of Property Change Requests

The city's new zoning ordinance, effective Nov. 17, will bring an increase in the cost of applications for changes in property use.

The new law will increase the cost of appeals from rulings of the building inspector to $10 and applications for changes in zoning to $20. The present rate for all applications is $5.

According to Paul Watt, city planning engineer, the raises are well in line with practices in other cities. The new procedures for handling applications, he explained, will require more paper work and checking.

New Hodtwalker Baby Is No. 10; 'Pop' Running House For Other 9

By ALLEN EDEE Star Staff Writer

A brand new baby, 9 lb. 1 oz. Michael Lynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hodtwalker of Denton was born at St. Elizabeth's Hospital and is reported in the same healthy condition as Ronald, Eleanor, Luanne, Ada, Dale and Randy.

The 36-year-old father for the 10th time was asleep in his chair when the Star reporter called on him at his Denton home. The family lives in "the largest house in town," a rambling 12 room white frame building, that contains almost more active motion pictures than any other place in Denton.

Hodtwalker, who also has time to organize and participate in Boy scout work (Ronald is a cub scout) dishes out some fine chow for the family of six boys and three girls. A dinner of lamb chops and mashed potatoes is just one of the hot meals that the expert cook prepares.

Hodtwalker is a little worried about Friday. That's the family wash day. The family is going to make an all-out effort to have a spic and span house when "mom" comes inside the front door as she is scheduled to this Saturday.

Although the children's hour never ends for Pop, Mrs. Hodtwalker doesn't need to worry about a thing. Her hard working husband, as the Marines would put it, "has the situation well in hand."

The new plates, which go on sale Jan. 1, 1954, will be black with yellow numerals.

George Morris, reformatory superintendent, said production is behind schedule because for the first time the institution is buying the material and funds were not available until July 1.

More than 700,000 plates are being made.

Toscanini Has Flu

NEW YORK (U)—Arturo Toscanini, 86, will not make his first scheduled appearance of the season as conductor of the NBC Symphony Orchestra next Sunday, the radio network said, because of "a light attack of the flu."

Fire Damages TV Set, Apartment's Interior

An apartment fire started by a lighted cigarette caused damage to a television set, the floor, walls and curtains at 424 No. 25th Thursday evening.

The occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eaton of Apt. 2, were away from home at the time of the fire. A next-door tenant on the second floor, Mrs. Leota Anderson, called firemen when she smelled smoke.

Assistant Chief Tucker theorized that a cigarette sitting on an ash tray atop the television set fell off onto a nearby clothes basket on the floor.

Round-The-Clock To Speed New City Reservoir

Work is under way at the 51st Street pumping station to speed up completion of the $246,000 water reservoir contracted for last week from Dobson Bros. Construction Co.

Pouring of the concrete floor of the 5-million-gallon tank is expected to take place within several days. Overhead lights are also being erected by the contractor for working 24 hours a day.

The reservoir site will be enclosed during the winter so the concrete sides can be poured regardless of the weather. Stoves are already on the site to heat the enclosure for the concrete work.

And rapid progress is also being made on the preparation of plans and specifications for the new 48-inch transmission line which will run from Ashland to Lincoln. The city engineering department sees the possibility of submitting the plans and specifications for Council approval a week from Monday.

That could mean the letting of a contract by Dec. 9, according to Deputy City Engineer Carl Fisher. The $4.1 million line will consume the major part of the $6 million bond issue the city will let Monday morning.

Solons Back From Europe Are Dubious

Roving Congressmen Question Ability Of West To Withstand Possible Soviet Attack; Complain Of Military Waste, Extravagance

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two House members back from an official inspection trip to Europe complained Thursday of waste and extravagance in military procurement. They also questioned the ability of Western Europe to withstand a Soviet attack.

The roving congressmen, Reps. Sikes and Lantaff, Florida Democrats, aired their opinions in a report for the House Appropriations and Government Operations Committees.

Sikes is a member of the Appropriations Committee. Lantaff is on the Government Operations Committee.

They were particularly critical of France and Italy and said that in those two countries there are underground Communist organizations in units up to brigade strength which probably could destroy vast quantities of military supplies stored in American bases. They said these bases were not properly guarded.

"French indecision remains a barrier to European unity today," they said, although the new French government "is showing more courage than many of its predecessors."

"Italy continues to be threatened with control by Communists," they added. "The average Italian today says, 'What have I got to lose from Communism?'"

They called Italy "the weak link in our defense chain."

They recommended that no additional economic aid be given to Europe and said future military assistance "should be given directly to practical results obtained and to the degree of cooperation shown by participating powers."

"We cannot permit ourselves the luxury of shotgun largesse," they commented.

In London and the Hague, Sikes and Lantaff said, they "encountered a most unusual situation in that the American embassy is at present occupied jointly with private interests and in each location a bad security risk is present."

But the State Department "ignores reality," they said.

Some of the conditions they criticized, they said, resulted from bilateral agreements between the State Department and European nations, the agreements apparently having been made "on the other fellow's terms."

As examples of what they called "mismanagement of military supplies," the congressmen said millions of dollars have been wasted through inadequate storage of airplane wing-tip tanks, automobile tires and other supplies, and through procurement of sub-standard batteries and other equipment.

The congressmen reported "evidences that some (military) posts are sloppily run" and that some officers "are taking too literally the coining of the Kremlin doves."

Sikes said he received the impression that some officers "live in a plush world apart from the reality of a dangerous situation" and "seem oblivious of the ever present possibility of Soviet invasion."

"Many Americans abroad never had it so good and they are taking full advantage of it while they can," they commented. "They arouse resentment in all classes abroad and provide another propaganda weapon for the Communists."

The report commended personnel of the State Department and related services abroad "for their hard-working and conscientious efforts," but said budget cuts this year have had a serious effect on operations.

Verdict Not Guilty In Murder Charge

SCOTTSBLUFF, Neb. (U)—Bruce Matlock, 41-year-old Scottsbluff tavern owner charged with second degree murder in the fatal shooting of his brother-in-law, Thursday was acquitted by a District Court jury.

The jury deliberated about six hours.

Matlock's brother-in-law, Ralph Montanez, 34, was shot to death last Aug. 29 at Matlock's tavern.

The shooting climaxed an altercation in which Matlock was hit over the left eye with a beer bottle. Matlock said he was dazed as a result.

'Education Most Important Industry'

Dr. Gabriel Leon (left), Cuban university professor, who says "education is the most important industry" in this country, joins Freeman Decker, state superintendent of public instruction, in looking over an educational report. (Star Photo.)

Local Schools Best Between Here And N.Y., Cuban Says

Dr. Gabriel Leon, professor of education at the University of Oriente, Santiago, Cuba, on an inspection of elementary schools in this country said Thursday that he considers Lincoln a "typical American city" and its schools the best he found between here and New York City.

He said he found the English spoken here much different from that in use in New York and Chicago and said he enjoyed being able to understand the "most friendly" people he had met. The large foreign element in larger cities, he said, seemed to cause language differences.

Cuban children, he said, have to attend school from age 5 to 14 but they observe a siesta and classes are from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 to 5 p.m. He explained that nursery schools are part of their public school system.

"You have a wonderful country with many climates and the people are very friendly—particularly in Lincoln," Dr. Leon said. He said that his country was the most friendly to the U. S. of any country in the world.

Asked what he considers the most important thing he had seen, Dr. Leon said, "Education is the most important industry you have."

Havana, he said, is more American than many cities on the Atlantic seaboard.

—Controls Plan—
Rationing
In Britain
Will Die

15-Year-Program
To End In Summer

LONDON (P) — The British meat industry will be handed back to private traders next summer and the nation's 15 years of food rationing will end simultaneously.

Prime Minister Churchill's government announced this Thursday. It said also that price control and allocations of meat and bacon will be wiped away.

When rationing ends, meat traders will be able to resume their prewar business operations and the farmers will be given price guarantees, it said.

The end of meat rationing will mean a rise in the better cuts of meat and bacon, reflecting consumer choice, while prices for lower grades will fall, the government said.

It forecast the average price of meat will remain the same, although beef prices are expected to rise slightly and mutton prices to drop.

Control over the meat industry was imposed as a war-time measure and continued by the postwar labor government, whose leaders contended the state could do the job more efficiently and economically than private dealers.

Britons eat each year more than 500 million pounds ($1,400,000,000) worth of meat—300 million pounds (840 million dollars) produced at home and the rest bought from abroad.

The government has already announced plans for ending rationing of butter, fats and cheese by early next year and has told housewives there will be no more ration books printed after the present ones expire next May.

Meat and bacon are virtually unrationed in Britain at the moment, although the food ministry retains a nominal weekly limit of five ounces of bacon and two shillings fourpence (3 cents) worth of meat per person in case supplies run short.

Other rationed products are cheese (two ounces), butter (three ounces), margarine (five ounces) and cooking fats (two ounces).

The death blow to rationing came in a white paper which sets out a new comprehensive policy for the marketing of farm produce.

"The ministry of food will continue for some time to import bacon, but will not trade in meat," the white paper said.

GOP, Demo Chiefs

For Killing Unicam

David Martin, Kearney, Republican state chairman, said Thursday that he and Democratic Chairman William Meier of Minden will submit to the secretary of state Friday the proposed petition for a constitutional amendment to abolish the unicameral legislative system.

State law requires that such petitions together with names of sponsors and persons financing their circulation must be filed with the secretary of state before circulation starts.

In PURSUIT of HAPPINESS
By J. GORDON ROBERTS

The Educational Reviewer offers the following letter from a student:

Tuesday evening
April, 1953

"Dear Mother,

"I certainly doubt that I will ever get a teacher's license if I stay here. I do not agree with everything the professor says, and I feel we are judged on what we believe rather than on facts. Our big tests are the essay type and when returned have only check marks at the top indicating our grade. There are no other marks on the paper explaining exactly what was wrong with the answer.

"You can't imagine how horrible it is to sit through one of those classes after all I have read, knowing that we are receiving one-sided propaganda, not facts. Today he read all of the McColl article and insisted we put down Mrs. Crain's name and Zoll's (both discredited—guilt by association?) in our notebooks. He read the entire article sneering at each people.

"I finally asked at the end how we were to know that the article was not just propaganda. The answer: 'It was written by reliable men,' and the subject was changed with no further discussion. Every day he reads two or three articles from N.E.A. and Z.E.A., etc. He has enough magazines to last a term. There are only a few students who agree with me: the rest are thoroughly 'indoctrinated'.

"One student in the class asked what would happen to children who had a very progressive teacher in the fourth grade and then went to a fifth grade class which had a traditional teacher. The answer: 'The principal would talk to "the teachers so they would not be too extreme in their methods of teaching and the children would then not be confused.' The question of the grading system also came up. 'We were told that the problem now is to educate the parents so that they will want a grading system of satisfactory or unsatisfactory, for they are the only ones opposing this idea. The teachers and students want it.

"The purpose of this letter, however, is to ask you to send me posthaste all of your information, the 8th California Report, and anything you have on McColl's, Progressive Education, N.E.A., etc. I am going to insist he give the other side to the class. I will certainly be on his black list then, but a college is supposed to present facts and allow free discussion. I shall enclose with each letter some of the things he hands out for us to do. Most will have to be copied.

"Right now we are all required to read the 'glorious' Kilpatrick's book, Education in a Changing Democracy. I shall also type some quotes from our textbook. I wish you could read it, but I will bring it home this summer. It is so discouraging. As I listen to this class, I lose all hope of our ever accomplishing anything through young teachers.

"Fulton Lewis Jr. has been ridiculed and put on the black list, also. Please send the materials at once."

2 Inmates Face
Bad Check Counts

Two men, now serving terms in the Nebraska Penitentiary, were arraigned in Lancaster District Court on bad check charges which had been pending.

Phil DeHaan, 26, of Omaha, pleaded guilty to issuing a $5 no-account check on a Lincoln drugstore on Aug. 16, 1953, with intent to defraud.

He was sentenced from Douglas County on Sept. 22, 1953, to a five-year term for grand larceny.

Robert M. Hanson, 33, of Lincoln, who pleaded guilty to giving a $37.34 no-account check to a Lincoln auto service on March 24, 1952, is presently serving a 27-month term given in April, 1953, for bad checks.

Judge Harry Ankeny deferred sentence pending further investigation of the cases.

Other crew members suffered only scrapes and bruises.

Monopoly Charged

CHICAGO (INS)—Cargill, Inc., one of the world's biggest grain traders, was named in a triple damage suit Thursday alleging anti-trust violations.

Two Chicago traders charged the company attempted to monopolize the sale of oats on the Chicago board of trade.

News Around The Globe

Explanations At Standstill

PANMUNJOM (Friday) (AP)—A surprise pre-dawn demand by the Communists—that they be allowed to interview bulky Chinese POWs instead of the North Koreans originally scheduled—brought today's prisoners explanations to a complete standstill.

At 3:30 a.m. the Reds suddenly demanded that Chinese prisoners left over from yesterday's sessions be produced for explanations.

An Indian command spokesman said "It is difficult for us to provide Chinese POWs this morning since they are not separated."

The Reds were rebuffed yesterday by 134 of 136 Chinese prisoners interviewed in drawn-out sessions.

Draft Boost Seen

ALFRED, N. Y. (P)—Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, said Thursday the draft call might be "even though we can reduce the armed forces in 1955."

He added that "there is talk now of upping the quotas to 40,000 or 50,000 men in January or February," compared with the current quota of 23,000 a month.

U.S. Fires 306

WASHINGTON (P)—The State Department announced Thursday it had dismissed 306 employees in this country and 178 alien employees abroad for security reasons in the past eight months.

These alleged security risks were fired apart from the department's regular reduction in force for economy reasons, the department said in a statement.

1 Hurt In C-47 Crash

CALHAN, Colo. (INS)—Only one of the four crewmen aboard an Air Force C-47 that crashed Thursday near Calhan, Colo., southeast of Denver, was seriously injured.

Other crew members suffered only scrapes and bruises.

Four Die In Fire

BOSTON (P)—Four persons perished Thursday night as fire swept a four-story brick tenement building in the thickly populated Roxbury district.

Officials said at least seven other persons were injured in the rapidly spreading blaze that started in the basement and swept in a flash up wooden staircases.

The dead included two women, a man and a child. Officials said all the dead lived on the fourth floor of the building.

25 Killed In Bolivia

LA PAZ, Bolivia (P)—The Lloyd Aereo Boliviano Airline said Thursday night 25 passengers and three crew members were killed Tuesday when one of its planes crashed and burned near Tarama, 18 miles from Sucre, the constitutional capital of Bolivia.

Rescue teams found the charred wreckage of the plane Thursday.

H-Test Planned

WASHINGTON (INS)—The U.S. was reported studying plans Thursday night to launch a test version of the hydrogen bomb in a guided missile or a robot plane.

Military sources said the test method would not be a "stunt" but that it might be employed to overcome the extreme difficulty of launching the world's most terrible weapon from a piloted bomber.

The test developed by America's first H-bomb test blast last fall was reported to be 150 degrees at a distance of 30 miles from the explosion.

Police Concerned
In Disappearance Of Illinois Youth

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (P)—A police official expressed concern Thursday for the safety of a 14-year-old son of a chemical firm executive who disappeared 10 days ago.

Herbert S. Wilkinson Jr., a 5-11, 175-pound high school freshman, vanished along with the family automobile, a light gray Buick sedan.

The blond youth, member of the Waukegan High School freshman football squad and considered a model student, is the son of Herbert S. Wilkinson, vice president in charge of sales for Abbott Laboratories.

Waukegan Chief of Detectives John R. Brake said, "There's plenty to be concerned about in this case."

Brake said the youth's parents believe he may have gone hunting in Wisconsin, but school mates said he mentioned a possible visit to unnamed friends in Georgia. The search is centering in those states and Illinois, police said.

Scientists Reveal Historic Pictures Of Polio Virus

POCONO MANOR, Pa. (P)—The polio virus has been captured in photographs taken by a powerful microscope, it was announced Thursday night.

The pictures show the virus as a tiny round ball, so small that a million side by side would form a row only an inch long.

Some of the viruses appear singly, others in clusters resembling fish eggs.

Dr. A. R. Taylor, research virologist of Parke, Davis & Co., Detroit, showed the pictures to the Electron Microscope Society of America. They were taken with an electron microscope at magnifications up to 200,000 to 300,000 times.

Smallest Virus

The historic pictures confirm estimates that the polio virus is one of the smallest of all viruses. They were taken during studies which indicate it is feasible to prepare concentrated virus preparations necessary in making a polio vaccine, Dr. Taylor said.

The Detroit company is working to develop a vaccine, but has not disclosed any details. It is said a vaccine would not be ready for general use until after more development and testing, which may take a year or more.

Recently-developed techniques of growing polio virus in test tubes upon non-virus tissue made it possible to obtain almost pure polio virus, and pictures of it.

It is understood that other researchers also have succeeded in taking such pictures.

Dr. Taylor showed photographs of type one, or Brunhilde polio virus. All three types of virus which can cause polio in humans are being studied by Parke-Davis.

This microscopic view represents the first authenticated picture of an isolated poliovirus, one of several photographs shown before the Electron Microscope Society of America gathering at Pocono Manor, Pa. The oval objects, in clusters and singly, are the virus, magnified 77,000 times. Indentations and larger swollen spots are on the surface of the background material. The pictures were presented by Dr. A. R. Taylor, research virologist at Detroit's Parke, Davis & Co. plant. (AP Wirephoto Thursday Night.)

Reds Agree To Korea Peace Talk Plan

Staff Men To Tackle Deadlock

PANMUNJOM, Friday (AP)—The Communists today accepted an Allied plan to let staff officers try breaking the deadlock that is holding up preliminary talks on a Korea peace conference.

The preliminary talks went into indefinite recess after a 20-minute session between U.S. Envoy Arthur Dean and Communist negotiators.

In their 11 sessions since Oct. 26 they have failed to settle an agenda for the preliminary talks.

The Communists want to discuss first the question of inviting neutrals to the main conference. The Allies want to decide on the time and place of the conference first, then listen to Red ideas on the matter of who will attend.

Subcommittees

Dean proposed yesterday that the talks be handed over to staff officers or advisers, two from each side, who could form two subcommittees and discuss the questions simultaneously, a procedure that was used successfully in the long Korean armistice negotiations.

The Reds temporarily rejected the plan yesterday but said they would have a more complete answer today.

Today's Red acceptance came as a surprise. The Reds made only one stipulation: "Your side must give up its unreasonable stand in ignoring composition."

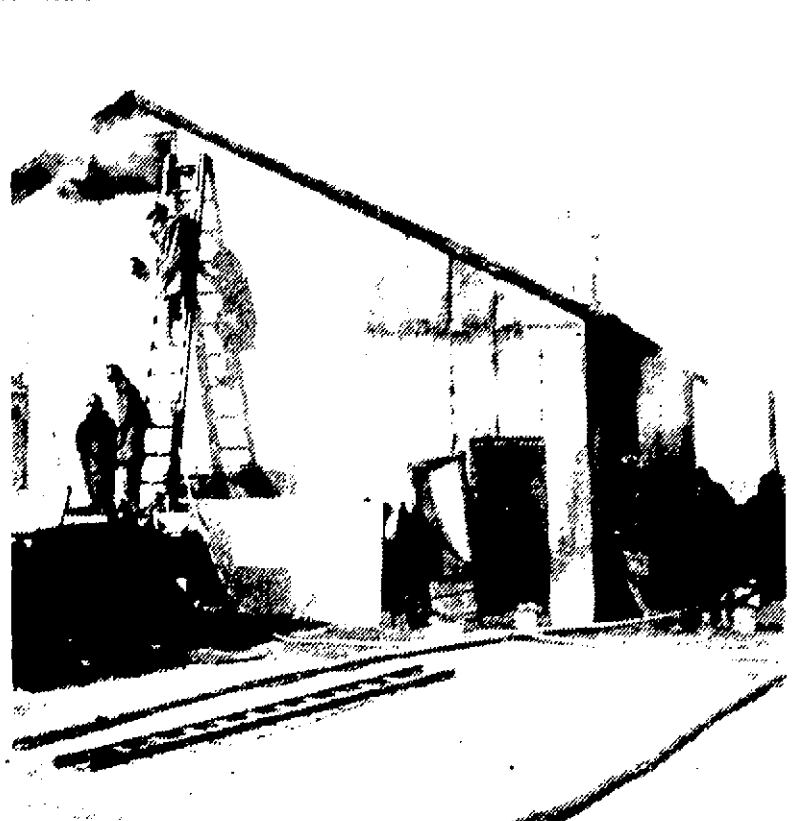

Ambassador Dean named Kenneth T. Young, northeast Asian affairs expert, and Col. Stanton Babcock, staff adviser, as the Allied staff officers.

The Reds named Chon Dong Kyok for the North Korean side and Pu Shou Chang for the Chinese.

Secret or Open

The advisers will meet tomorrow at 11 a.m. 8 p.m. Friday (CST) and decide whether the talks will be in secret or open.

The top preliminary negotiators decided to recess "until the advisers report back on one side or the other decides to terminate the meeting of the advisers," Dean said.

Deserves A Paddling

KITCHENER, Ont. (AP)—Police said a lot of innocent husbands are getting the silent treatment or worse in this area from indignant wives. A 13-year-old girl was held responsible. Her game was picking names at random from the telephone book and on the phone telling a wife of an absent husband of a romance with him. Her tag line was that she didn't know the man was married.

Lag In County Roads

Nebraska's secondary highway program is lagging. It is lagging despite the fact that the Schroeder highway bill, rammed through the Legislature a few years ago, was supposed to contribute to the program to lift the farmer out of the mud. Instead of speeding the construction of the most traveled county roads, in the judgment of the state highway engineer it would appear that the Schroeder law has had the opposite effect. Addressing an audience of county officials, Highway Engineer Rens criticized the attitude that the most traveled county roads should not be given major improvements, "until every road serving only a single family has a coat of gravel on it." Mr. Rens's position is sound, although naturally every farm family might hope to have a gravel road passing its door.

The important county traffic arteries, Mr. Rens pointed out, are eligible for federal aid secondary highway funds. Nebraska counties matched less than a million dollars worth of construction in the first nine months of 1953. Directly to the south of us, Kansas counties matched federal-aid dollars to provide $7,500,000 worth of county road improvement. And that is not a very flattering showing for Nebraska.

Two basic weaknesses have developed, in the judgment of Mr. Rens. Nebraska counties are reluctant to take advantage of federal matching funds because of the lack of county highway engineers and because of the attitude on the part of county boards that all county and township roads should be improved equally, an impossible job if the job is to be done.

The situation confirms some of the criticism of the Schroeder highway bill that was offered at the time the measure was under consideration. Things will not get any better until some of the "bugs" it contained are eliminated.

Information, Please

The case of Miss Jane Hoyer, a native-born Nebraskan, invites attention. The press dispatches reveal that Miss Hoyer, filling a key position in the Social Security Administration since 1936 as director of the Bureau of Public Assistance, has been removed "so that an administration representative can be selected for this policy-making position."

Miss Hoyer may be a registered Democrat or a registered Republican. We have no notion what her political affiliation is. The news dispatches telling of her removal quoted her to the effect that she was appointed to the job which she has handled with competence, by a Republican, the late John G. Winant, at one time governor of New Hampshire, and also appointed chairman of the Social Security Board after the social security program had gone into effect. In her own behalf, Miss Hoyer said that at no time had she heard she was ever accused of mixing politics with her work. At 61 she was due to become eligible for government benefit retirement pay in January, a few weeks in advance of which she was given the gate.

And the announcement by Mrs. Pobby, a member of Ike's team, contained the curious statement that Miss Hoyer would vacate the job at the secretary's request but emphasized "this action in no way reflected on Miss Hoyer's long record of service in both public and private welfare work."

Fortunately for Miss Hoyer, it appears that she has accumulated sufficient leave to keep her place on the federal payroll until the retirement benefits she has earned become effective.

Of Men And Things

A good many million words are being used by both Republicans and Democrats to explain what happened along the Atlantic seaboard in Tuesday's elections. Each individual, we assume, has his own reasons for a political reverse with few parallels in American history. While people talk about the uncertainties which face the party in power in off-year elections, it simply does not happen ordinarily to the party in power within the short space of a year—or if it is recalled that Mr. Eisenhower did not take office until January 20 of 1953, less than a year.

Some of the pro-Eisenhower press is whining that the men around President Eisenhower, his key men, are fumbling. They lack a sense of direction. The President is doing a good job, they say, but he and the men around him, haven't the know-how to acquaint the voter with the kind of job that is being done. Hardworking, capable as these men are, the pro-Eisenhower press says, they lack the know-how of establishing the right kind of public relations. That is the bunk, and the quicker Republican leadership recognizes it as bunk, the better the GOP will fare. From the days of the Chicago convention which nominated him, on through the campaign and in the months which have followed, it has seemed to us that there was one great awesome gap in President Eisenhower's equipment for the job to which the American people elected him. The pro-Eisenhower press complains that there is a lack of appreciation of the dramatics. The lack is not that of dramatics but actually in presidential thinking of a sense of American destiny—a national future. Some call it the feel of history. Others describe it as political intuition. Whatever words are used to define it, the fact remains that those men who have served the American people so as to be indelibly stamped with greatness in terms of political leadership, have had it.

Lincoln had it. He possessed a deep conviction of the destiny of this country and he expressed those convictions in words that have come down through the years. While the pro-Eisenhower press talks about the failures of the men around the President, particularly the failure of Secretary of Agriculture Benson, the fact remains that the great decisions of the greatest Republican President in history were made in the agony of loneliness, and against the advice and counsel, frequently against the active opposition of the members of his cabinet, his official family.

A good deal is being written at this time about the commission which have been established since last January to decide what should be done. There is the commission headed by Herbert Hoover. It is to report in a few months what function should be performed by the federal government and what should be left alone. The commission is not very far from the Hoover era, is it?

There is still another commission, specially report upon the relations between the states and the federal government. It is headed by Chairman Warren. Mr. Warren has been asked to study a degree in demagoguery. It is in matters such as TVA that the federal government, in the name of the public, has been so successful. The federal government has been so successful in the name of the public that it has been able to turn the clock back to the 1930's. People have not forgotten the time that the Democrats took over in March of 1933. On inauguration day, then, the clock in this country was checked. They have not forgotten entirely a certain Sunday when the President of the United States advised his people the banks would open at a given hour. They did. They have not entirely forgotten the 100-day legislative program that was enacted.

There is action was what we call the feel of history, political intuition, the sense of American destiny that leads to decision and progress. Here we are, twenty years later, cautiously feeling our way, trying to decide upon what we should do, unable to reach decisions, hoping to go back to something but uncertain what that something is. Why? Has the party in power a conviction as to what constitutes American destiny?

What is important to the public is the announcement that her retirement was ordered to permit an administration representative to be selected for a policy-making position. Are these changes in policy as yet unrevealed to be made in the administration of social security? If there are, it would seem that American people are entitled to know what these changes are. It could not be extending coverage or making more people eligible for benefits. Only Congress with the approval of the President could do that. Then what are the policy-making elements which are so important that one who has served since the beginning of the program must be removed?

Withholding News

The Eisenhower administration, feeling the pressure of a critical press, has indicated that it will provide a free flow of news. The tightened censorship brought on by the war and continued afterward in the name of national security is providing too many government agencies with an inducement to close the public record even where security is not at stake.

The desire to close the record, to withhold facts that are embarrassing and to determine what the public ought to know is not an innovation. There are just times when the practice is easier to pursue. It exists on every level from the township board on up. It is the constant task of the press to keep a foot in the door.

Censorship is one of the great fallacies in a democratic society and the public administrations that practice it inevitably lose the confidence of the public and reap nothing but bad from it. A public servant cannot survive if he distrusts the public or if he is doing things he dares not let the public see. If there is not mutual confidence, there can be no successful relationship. Yet the temptation to hide the news is stronger than many can resist.

It's Our Business

If one is to take the word of grass roots spokesmen, Nebraska is not overly concerned yet with projected administration changes in reclamation, public power and the farm program. Other Great Plains states are reacting with more fervor. This is a unique commentary on Nebraska for it should be most concerned of all, whether for or against.

When one stops to evaluate, it is significant that the states' entire electric industry is public power. The state's basic economy is agriculture and its future growth depends upon reclamation, flood control, irrigation and a sound farm program. Modification of any of these programs will have a direct effect. To say that the state is little concerned describes a person standing on a railroad track in front of an oncoming train, counseling a friend to be careful climbing the right-of-way fence, lest he fall and get hurt.

Shirttail Voters

The Philadelphia shirttails will not be permitted in election booths. If that rule were applied here, one would say in view of present election returns the Republican party would be virtually disenfranchised. It has certainly lost its pants.

'Sour' Note Mars Ammo Hauling Meet

...Trucker Registers Complaint—Overloaded Truck Was Stopped

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

One "sour" note was injected into the meeting called by Gov. Robert Crosby to seek cooperative methods of providing increased safety in the transportation of explosives in the state.

Leo McKeon, representing the Red Bull Transfer Co. of Omaha, complained that the State Safety Patrol had held up a truck loaded of explosives at North Platte because it was not only over the legal axle load limit but also over the 5 per cent "tolerance" authorized by the last Legislature over the governor's veto.

He contended that when ammunition trucks are found overloaded, they should be allowed to continue to their destination as a safety measure rather than be required to meet legal limits under provisions of the law sponsored by the trucking industry.

The law provides "the load shall be reduced or shifted to within such maximum tolerance before being permitted to operate on any public highway." The law continues, "All material so unloaded shall be cared for by the owner or operator of such vehicle at the risk of such owner or operator."

Opponents of the "tolerance" law argued at the time that the tolerance authorized would soon be used as haulers as the regular weight of loading and that the law was actually merely increasing load limits. The complaint by McKeon appeared proof of this contention.

Truckers argued that shifting loads made the "tolerance" necessary but McKeon did not complain of "shifting" but said his truck was loaded with 90 pounds overweight on the axle in addition to the 900 pounds tolerance allowed.

The other side of the trucking picture was presented by W. J. Byrnes of the Munitions Carriers Conference who told of nationwide efforts to increase safety in hauling of dangerous cargoes. He said uniform regulations were agreed to by the conference that are more strict than those of the ICC, Defense Department or state of Nebraska.

Among the regulations which he said the industry planned to enforce were a 45 mile speed limit for explosives trucks and not to exceed 20 miles in towns.

and less if regulations so provide. The trucks would be required to reduce "open road" speed as they approached cities.

Nebraska carriers reported that they have agreed to accept the regulations and now prohibit more than one truck to stop at highway rest points and to maintain a distance of 500 feet while traveling. State and federal laws provide a maximum requirement of 300 feet.

It was reported that all truck lines have inspectors on the road, watching for violations on either their own or trucks of other lines.

William Wolfe, representing Watson Bros. of Omaha, said plans are now being considered to provide better equipment for removing tires in case of fire and asbestos gloves for use of drivers.

The truck representatives said every 50 miles and it is planned to provide a air pressure tests. Wolfe spoke in favor of a suggestion by Fire Marshal E. C. Iverson that fireproof blankets be carried to cover tires and contain any blaze until extinguished.

Byrnes invited Nebraska representatives to attend a tire fire test to be held soon, probably at Salt Lake City.

Earl Newman of the Defense Department praised Nebraska for holding the conference.

The "human element" or "driver responsibility" brought forth an explanation that the Nebraska Motor Carriers association maintains a clinic at Omaha for testing drivers as to general health, eyesight and hearing, in addition to giving instruction on driving with explosives.

The truck haulers being given an

State Engineer L. N. Rees explained that "unfortunately the highways being used are the only ones that can be used."

"Appraisal route" are often unsafe in certain types of weather," Wolfe said in telling of his study of possible routes in order to bypass Omaha.

He said the Plattsburgh bridge had unsafe highway approaches and the bridge clearance at the sides is inadequate for trucks.

Knockout Battle With Commies In Indochina Delayed

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — The French high command Thursday pulled its troops from Phu Nho Quan for the second time after failing to draw Vietnamese Division 320 from hideouts in the neighboring hills into a knockout battle.

The French and Vietnamese detachments regrouped 10 miles southward to press further their 22-day-old offensive.

The French and Vietnamese troops first took Phu Nho Quan Oct. 23. They destroyed military installations and abandoned it.

During the coming months, the cobs, with appropriate tags affixed, will be mailed to tourists who stopped at the city's hotels and motels. The tags will proclaim Fremont as the midwest's hybrid corn center.

Local seed companies are participating in the event.

Group To Study NU Doctorate Battle

A committee of University of Nebraska faculty members has been appointed by the Board of Regents to "clear up misunderstandings" arising from the board's approval last spring of the Teachers College Doctor of Education degree.

Serious opposition to the degree was voiced last spring by the Graduate Council and the Graduate College faculty. Granting of the degree which is administered by Teachers College rather than the Graduate College was opposed on the basis that it would accomplish nothing which could not be done under present Ph. D. requirements.

The degree was supported by Teachers College Dean F. E. Henzlik who said it places more emphasis on professional preparation with the reading knowledge of foreign languages optional.

The Board of Regents stated in May that it would not consider changing its opinion on the granting of the degree. At that time, C. Y. Thompson, board chairman, said it was a "closed issue."

Thompson said Thursday that the committee had been appointed to get opposing factions together so they will understand the action which the board took last spring.

"The board is standing by the actions which it has taken," he said. "We just want to clear up misunderstandings."

Thompson said there had been no request for the appointment of the committee. The faculty members appointed by the Regents at their meetings last Saturday are:

Francis Nicol, assistant to the chancellor, chairman.
A. C. Drekenkotte, associate professor and chairman of the political science department.
Charles S. Miller, professor of business organization and management in the College of Business Administration.
Walter K. Hines, professor of school administration and history and principles of education in Teachers College.
Dean A. Worcester, professor and chairman of the department of educational psychology and measurements in Teachers College.

Rare Whooping Cranes On Way To South U.S.

REGINA, Sask. (AP)—Three of the world's few remaining whooping cranes are resting near Herbert, Sask., on their way to southern United States wintering grounds. Fred Bard, director of the Saskatchewan Museum, said he found the birds Thursday and confirmed they were the rare cranes.

So far, 16 whooping cranes have flown from summer nesting grounds in the Canadian Arctic to winter grounds in Texas. Only about 30 of the birds are believed still alive.

PMA Begins Study For '54 Allotments

Nebraska PMA fieldman have begun the job of marshalling the farm-by-farm information needed if corn acreage allotments are decreed by the Department of Agriculture in the state's 63 commercial corn counties next year.

State Executive Director Robert M. Webb told his nine field men that Dec. 15 is the deadline for transmission of the completed survey to Washington where the allotment decision is required prior to Feb. 1, 1954.

First field step will be the briefing of county PMA organizations which will in turn direct the fact-gathering on the precinct committee level. The latter committee will conduct the farm-to-farm study. It will follow on each farm's corn acreage planted in 1951-52-53. Some 120,000 Nebraska farms will be visited.

Webb said that if allotments are decreed, the state's per cent of acreage reduction will be computed at Washington after a reconciliation of surplus corn, average of the three years' planted acreage, and computed shrink requirements. Assignment of county allotments would be handled at the state level.

Thacher Services To Be Saturday

Funeral services for James Mortimer Thacher, 72, 2814 F. will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at Roper & Sons, the Rev. Lloyd Watt officiating.

Mr. Thacher, a salesman for 18 years, died Wednesday.

Born in Kansas City, Kan., he had lived in Lincoln 45 years.

He was a member of the Methodist Church and the Elks. Surviving are his wife, Freda, and a stepdaughter, Clara Newby of Omaha.

Burial will be in Wyuka. Pallbearers will be George H. Wink, A. W. Oldfield, Lewis Farrar, Earl Elliott, Warren Sears and Thomas Slaby.

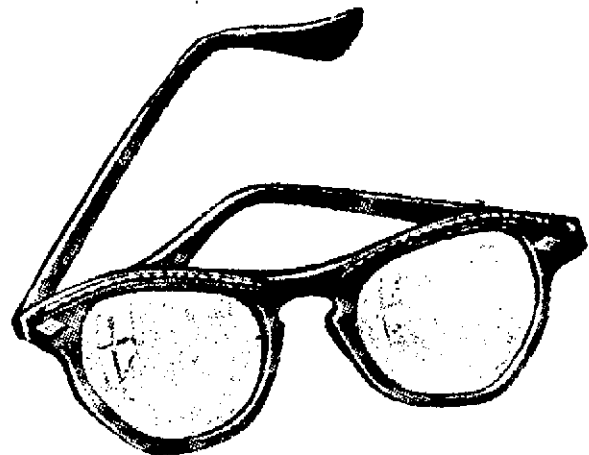

Woman's Condition Poor After Fall Down Porch Steps

Mrs. Albert Campbell, 67, of 4211 No. 60, still is partially paralyzed and reported in poor condition at Bryan Memorial Hospital following a tumble in which her head struck a lawn-mower.

The accident happened on the front steps of her home. Mrs. Campbell fell from the top of the steps.

Police also received a report Thursday that Richard Kruse, 14, of 822 New Hampshire, suffered a badly cut finger when he got it caught between the chain and sprocket of his bicycle.

Petroleum Marketers Urge Bi-Partisan Highway Committee

OMAHA (AP)—The 33rd annual convention of Nebraska Petroleum Marketers, Inc., Thursday urged establishment of a bi-partisan, part-time highway committee.

A resolution suggested the committee should have executive powers to represent all the people in the state in the development of a sound, firm, long range, highway program beyond the influence of special or political interests.

Fred K. Evans of Arapahoe was advanced from first vice president to president of the marketers. He succeeds E. H. Lohr of Columbus. Other officers named were: Glenn D. Martin of Falls City, first vice president, and Thomas D. Witt of Pender, second vice president.

The oil men also called upon the State Highway Department "to co-operate with the counties in developing greater matching of federal-aid secondary funds by counties in building local roads at a cost within the reach of county governments."

Secretary Herbert H. Hahn said counties in surrounding states— Iowa, Kansas and South Dakota—do considerably more matching than those in Nebraska. Cost is a factor, he added.

The resolution gave these 1951 figures from the Bureau of Public Roads: Iowa built 864 miles of secondary roads at an average cost per mile of $9,915; Kansas built 1,537 miles at an average cost of $4,543; South Dakota built 538 miles at an average cost of $7,580, and Nebraska built 167 miles at an average cost of $27,140 per mile.

Other resolutions passed by the group Thursday:

Urged that any proposal for toll roads in Nebraska should include provisions for safeguarding the public's interests and investments in existing roads and, further, that such toll roads be so managed that eventually they will become free ways.

Noted that each year more than $20 million of public tax funds are allocated to counties and towns for road and street purposes and "strongly advocated" that these agencies be required to render strict, accurate, accounts of all road funds, especially those derived from state imposed taxes.

Opposed the 2 cent federal gasoline tax and urged its discontinuance so this field of taxation can be left to the states.

Urged elimination of the federal gasoline tax as it is applied to tractor fuel, naphtha and solvents and pledged the NPM's support to pending bills to accomplish that purpose.

Contended the practice of direct sales of petroleum and automotive products to consumers at prices lower than those quoted to jobbers in the same market is detrimental to the industry and should be discontinued.

Complained that surplus gasoline and other refined products are "dumped" on the market, usually through brokers, at prices lower than those charged on "contract" or "regular purchase" agreements.

Objected to the efforts of some county assessors to include the federal and state excise taxes in the computation of the value of gasoline and other fuels for tax assessment purposes.

One of the principal speakers at Thursday's session was E. L. Beeman of Houston, Tex., director of transportation of the Kanab Pipe Line Co. He told the story of the firm's decision to locate the line in Nebraska.

"Seeking a rich agricultural area, spotted with many cities and progressive towns and having a high consumption of petroleum products," Kanab "chose the area from South Central Kansas to Central Nebraska for its new pipe line" which goes into operation in about a month, he said.

He noted that a point on Highway 81, between Geneva and Fairmont, was picked as the end terminal on the line because it was a point readily accessible for transport trucks from all sections of Nebraska and South Dakota.

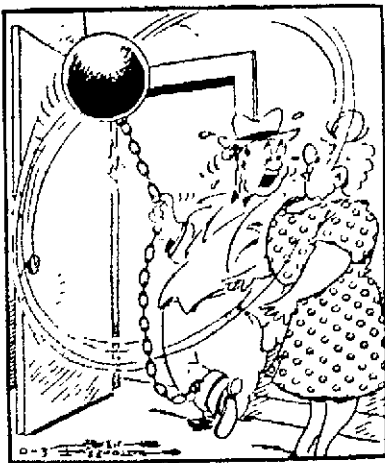

The line starts south of Concordia, Kan., and goes in a direct line through Belleville, west of Hebron and to a point north of Geneva.

Town Talk

THERE'S one thing to be said for the talk about town—it's never dull—There are at least a few interesting topics—such as guests—or perhaps a party—Wedding plans always are food for conversation as are the courtesies for the brides-to-be—and we never yet have found a homecomer who wasn't of interest—

BUT JUST in case we don't get everything told this morning, we think we shall start the proceedings with the guest list—

Understand that Miss Sue Weston will be arriving from Madison, Wis., today for a Friday-to-Sunday stay as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter White—

AND FROM Grand Island this week-end, comes Miss Mary McLaughlin, Kappa Alpha Theta at Nebraska, who will spend a day or two—or three—as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ames.

TODAY ALSO is arrival day for an author from Santa Fe—Ruth Laughlin Alexander—who will remain until Monday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson. Mrs. Alexander, incidentally, is the author of "Caballeros"—and her most recent book is "The Wind Leaves No Shadow."

BACK HOME again is Mrs. Reginald Woodruff who has been spending some time in the East—mainly at Aberdeen, Md., where she visited her son and daughter-in-law, Lieut. and Mrs. Foster Woodruff. Mrs. Woodruff also spent several days in New York City before her return home on Tuesday.

MENTION OF Mrs. Woodruff brings to mind a bride-elect—Miss Adele Coryell, who is to marry Donald J. Hall three weeks from tomorrow—in whose honor Mrs. Woodruff will be a luncheon hostess next Thursday at her home. Twelve guests have been invited for luncheon and an informal afternoon.

THE BASSINET club of Denver sends us word that it has a new member—Lynn Allyn Woodworth—who arrived on Oct. 27. Mrs. Woodworth is the former Ann Lambert, daughter of Dean and Mrs. Vincent Lambert, and is a Pi Beta Phi at the University of Nebraska.

AND A check on the talmuc powder set in Chilton, Wis., tells us that Mr. and Mrs. Dale Edens have announced the arrival of a son, Robert Dale, on Oct. 14. Mrs. Edens is the former Mildred Buechel, who prior to her marriage was a coed at Nebraska. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Buechel. The baby's paternal grandfather is Paul Edens of Lincoln.

Wedding In Honolulu

MRS. VERN G. BANDEL

The marriage of Miss Doris Ann Meier, daughter of Mrs. John F. Meier and the late Mr. Meier, and Ensign Vern G. Bandel, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Bandel of Rochester, Minn., took place at the First Christian Church in Honolulu, Hawaii, on Saturday, Oct. 10. The double ring ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Walter Griswold.

The matron of honor and bride's only attendant was Mrs. Dona Gardner Katz who was frocked in gold nylon net over taffeta and who carried a fan of white lace ornamented with white and gold-toned chrysanthemums. Lighting the chancel candles was Mrs. Sally Vyskocil.

The bride was given in marriage by Capt. J. Alford, USN, and chose for her wedding a gown of traditional white satin designed in the period mode with tapering into a train. A cap of white lace embroidered with seed pearls held her veil of silk illusion, and she carried a white Bible marked with a cluster of gold-throated white orchids.

Serving as best man was Ensign Donald Russel, USN. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the parlors of the church.

Ensign and Mrs. Bandel will reside in Honolulu where the bridegroom is stationed with the navy at Pearl Harbor. He is a graduate of the Rochester, Minn., Business School and of the University of Minnesota College of Engineering. Mrs. Bandel is a graduate of St. Mary School of Nursing, Rochester, Minn., and of Nebraska Wesleyan University where she is a member of Delta Zeta sorority.

Mrs. Herman Stiefes, president, conducted the November meeting of the Lincoln Council of Parents and Teachers Thursday afternoon when Dr. Steven N. Watkins, superintendent of Lincoln schools, was the guest speaker.

Dr. Watkins spoke to the council on the progress of the public construction program in the city. In his report, he stated that in 1950, there 253 available classrooms in the city with 342 available in 1953. Elementary pupils enrolled in school in 1950 totaled 8,020, while today there are 10,404 enrolled in the schools, with an increase of 149 in certificated teaching personnel during the last three years.

In 1950, the enrollment of elementary and junior high school pupils in Lincoln was 13,227, which almost has doubled in 1953 to 16,162. Dr. Watkins reported, and he added that the estimated enrollment of grade school pupils only, in 1957 will be approximately 12,600.

Mrs. Wendell Groth told of plans for the annual Christmas party sponsored by the council for exceptional children, and a report on the sale of the PTA Magazine was given by Mrs. Lyle Hans. Plans for observing National Education Week, Nov. 8 to 14, were discussed by Mrs. William McDermet.

U.S. Tippers Aid Europe's Economy, John Quinn Says

America, as a nation of tipplers, are doing a good job toward helping Europe get back on its financial feet, according to John B. Quinn, public relations consultant in Lincoln.

Quinn returned this week from a five-week tour of European countries to determine better means of increasing a tourist promotion by Europeans. His trip was planned and under the direction of the Mutual Security Agency headed by Harold Stassen, for whom Quinn campaigned in Nebraska in the 1948 elections.

Quinn's official capacity was as consultant to the Foreign Operations Administration, and his forthcoming report is expected to point up ways of maintaining or increasing American dollars in Europe.

The thinking behind this, Quinn said, is that dollars from tourists, the main income of several European countries, will help many countries stabilize themselves financially. Also, Quinn said, these countries will better be able to buy goods and products from the United States.

The larger cities Quinn visited during his stops included Madrid, Rome, Paris, Vienna, London, Frankfurt, and Bonn.

His itinerary included, Quinn said, attendance at the International Union of Official Travel Organizations at Lisbon, and the 32d Annual Convention of the American Society of Travel Agents and World Travel Congress in Rome.

He noted there had been some criticism of his trip, along with the $50 a day fee as consultant. He answered this by pointing out that his conference obligations along with travel and advance arrangements made it impossible to enjoy the trip as a vacation.

Also, he said, the fee itself was taken up largely in filling the difference between his expenses and the basic per diem allowance from the government. The trip, he added, was strictly a job.

Two Killed, 15 Wounded In Trieste Riot

Troop Act Protested By Mayor

TRIESTE (AP) — Pro-Italian demonstrations got out of hand in this disputed city Thursday and territorial police, shooting to break up a riotous, hostile crowd, killed two persons and wounded 15.

Scores of other demonstrators and police were injured in other battling around the port. About three dozen were hospitalized.

The Trieste Council of Labor called all workers in the city off their jobs for 24 hours Friday. The walkout was not called a general strike but "an abstention from work in city-wide mourning."

In Rome the General Confederation of Labor likewise was considering a nationwide walkout.

The shooting came near the Roman Catholic Church of St. Anthony. A priest was re-consecrating the church because of blood spilled in it during a wild melee between students and police earlier in the day.

Police Target

As hundreds of students crowded around the church for the ceremony, a riot police jeep moved into the throng. Students began hurling paving blocks and sticks at the occupants.

Witnesses said the police tried to fight free of the crowd, but failed. It was estimated 1,000 demonstrators and 200 police were involved.

The crowd smashed several police jeeps and trucks. The police used fire hoses in a vain attempt to break up the riot, then opened fire. A youth of 17 and an elderly man were killed.

Shortly afterward, trucks bearing armed United States and British troops moved toward the center of the city.

It is the first time they have been called out during the two days of demonstrations and rioting, touched off by a celebration of the 35th anniversary Wednesday of Italy's victory in World War I.

Mayor Gianni Bartoli and Diego De Castro, Italian political counselor to the Allied government, protested the police actions to British Gen. Sir John Wadsworth, the Allied commander. Work in many parts of the city stopped when word of the shooting was broadcast.

Meanwhile, indications appeared that United States and British troops may remain here longer than originally planned when the two countries announced Oct. 8 that they would withdraw their troops and turn Trieste over to Italy.

Drugs To Halt Cancer Certain, Shimkin Feels

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK (AP) — Drugs to conquer cancer are sure to come, Dr. Michael B. Shimkin of San Francisco said Tuesday.

He and associates have fired 42 chemical bullets at cancers in hopelessly ill children, men and women in the last five years.

Some drugs did a little good, but about comparable to snipers trying to halt an advancing army. Yet the promise in the few temporary successes gives the basis for hope, Dr. Shimkin told the American Cancer Society's annual meeting.

"We have a tremendous stirring and development in chemicals against cancer which must be crowned with success — whether in 10 or 20 years or when I do not know, not being born a soothsayer."

"Only 10 years ago there was simply no chemical agents which would affect cancers."

"People once went to witch doctors for their headaches. Now we have aspirin, and we know how it works. The same thing will happen eventually in cancer."

Dr. Shimkin is chief of the Laboratory of Experimental Oncology (study of tumors), Laguna Honda Home of the National Institutes of Health. Of 492 patients treated there, 467 had advanced cancers, apparently hopeless. In last-ditch attempts to save them, they received one or more of 42 different chemical agents that have come from various research laboratories.

By last September, 90 per cent had died. But 7 per cent lived for more than five years from the time their cancers were detected.

Violinist Wins Award

LONDON (AP) — A 43-year-old woman violinist was awarded $3,472 damages for an injured finger.

Miss Julie Saumarez fell down stairs and fractured the thumb and middle finger of her left hand. She sued county medical authorities on the grounds a doctor at a Kent hospital was negligent. He failed to diagnose the injury correctly, she said, and her finger now is permanently crooked, affecting her ability as a violinist.

White House Gets An Inspection OK

WASHINGTON (INS) — The White House passed a critical inspection with flying colors Thursday as the first lady led her first conducted tour through the executive mansion.

The decorators, in the capital for a three-day convention, afterward put their seal of approval on the presidential mansion while the first lady beamed.

Organization Of Legal Aid Community Programs Urged

The Nebraska State Bar Association committee on legal aid will recommend establishment of legal aid programs in outstate Nebraska communities at the annual association meeting in Omaha, Nov. 12 and 13.

The committee has found that only Lincoln and Omaha have organized legal aid facilities. The group will recommend that local bar associations designate one or more lawyers to handle legal aid in their area on a periodic and rotating basis.

Legal aid needs in the Lincoln area are being met through the Legal Aid Clinic sponsored by the University of Nebraska College of Law, the Lincoln Bar Association and the Lincoln Barristers Club. The clinic is operated by 14 senior law students under the direction of Edward D. Morgan with 45 practicing attorneys co-operating.

The Omaha Legal Aid Clinic is jointly sponsored by Creighton University School of Law, the Omaha Bar Association and the Barristers Club of Omaha. Omaha is also served by the Public Defender's office which handles many legal matters for persons unable to afford services of private attorneys.

Members of the legal aid committee are:

John W. Delehant Jr., chairman.
Thomas C. Quinlan, co-ordinator.
James E. Crowe, Loren G. Olson
Bernard S. Gradwohl, Bayard H. Paine Jr.
Tyler H. Gaines, Elmer M. Scheele
Lynn D. Hutton Jr., John W. Stewart

Islander—Links Fray Rings Down Grid Curtain

Four Capital City Preps To Play Finale Tonight

By RON GIBSON
Star Sports Staff Member

Tonight is the grand finale of one of the greatest shows in Lincoln—high school football.

Four Capital City teams wind up their 1953 seasons tonight, three of them at home.

Local fans will be treated to a three-ring circus featuring Lincoln High, Northeast and College View. Cathedral goes to Omaha for a tough one with Omaha Cathedral.

The Capital City's three-ring circus features two homecoming games and one of the state's top inter-school rivalries.

In the center ring is the Grand Island-Lincoln High game at the Oval. Kick-off is at 7:30 p.m., but if you want a seat you had better get there around 6 o'clock.

A special train bringing between 1,000 and 1,500 Grand Island rooters will accompany the powerful Third City eleven.

The GI rooters will augment an expected overflow crowd from Lincoln alone. Some Lincoln rooters, we've heard, are camping overnight at the Oval.

The Islanders, undefeated in eight games, will be favored over the Links who are really fired up for this big finale. Ten seniors will be playing their last game.

Northeast has Sioux City East as its homecoming opponent in a 7:30 game at Mabee Stadium. The Rockets will be underdogs against the Iowans, who have lost but two games all year and are the class of northwestern Iowa.

The Black Raiders will be remembering a 38-7 defeat which Northeast administered at Sioux City last year.

Two more injuries have been added to the injury which has plagued Northeast all year. End Jack Furrow will be out with a broken hand and End Larry Bryant underwent an appendectomy.

The homecoming game will be the last appearance for 14 Rocket seniors and Junior Halfback Ken Nelson, who will be ineligible because of the age limit next year. The speedy Nelson dropped out of school one year and thus will be too old for competition in 1954.

College View has planned a gala fiesta for the Viewmen homecoming at 8:15 at Ashland. Kick-off at CV field is at 7:30 p.m.

The Viewmen will be favored although crippled by some late injuries. Ashland has not won a game yet.

This will be the Viewmen's fifth Ak-Sar-Ben Conference game of the season. College View has a 2-2 conference record.

A homecoming queen and king will be crowned at halftime and after the game both squads and pep clubs will be treated to free chow by the CV pep club. A free homecoming dance will follow.

Thirteen Viewmen will be playing in their last game. The Viewmen's Cathedral plays Omaha Cathedral at Omaha's Benson Field. Kick-off is at 8 p.m.

The Bluebirds are up for this traditional battle but the Omahans, stronger than they have been in recent years, will be favored.

The game with the Redbirds will be the last appearance for 11 Cathedral seniors.

Wayne Gains 2nd With Hastings Win

Lincoln Star Special

WAYNE — Wayne cinched at least a tie for second place in the Nebraska College Conference Thursday afternoon by downing Hastings 13-7.

Jim Anderson figured in all three touchdowns. He scored the first Wildcat score on a nine yard pass from Don Kellogg and made the other score on a three yard line plunge.

Hastings made a determined drive in the final period only to lose the ball on downs on the Wayne four. However, Anderson's punt was blocked and Dale Walker fell on the ball in the end zone to score six points for Hastings.

One of the outstanding runs of the day was a 78 yard run by Wildcat Jim Kay from the kickoff after the half.

Kearney must beat undefeated Peru Friday to share second place in the NCC with Wayne.

Prison Release Is Ordered For Saigh

WASHINGTON (INS) — The federal parole board, Thursday ordered the release of former St. Louis Cardinal owner Fred M. Saigh from Terre Haute penitentiary on or about Nov. 15.

The parole board, by an undisclosed vote, agreed to release Saigh, who had pleaded no defense to two counts of a federal income tax evasion indictment.

The justice department said Saigh began serving his 15 month prison term in May.

Saigh was convicted in St. Louis on each of the two counts, the sentences running concurrently. He was also fined $10,000 on one of the counts and $5,000 on the other.

Boat Club Party Set

The Lincoln Boat Club has planned a party for members and their families tonight at 6:30 at Moose Lodge hall. The party will feature a supper, dancing and movies.

Having proven our point (bet against the Huskers and they'll win), we're switching tactics this week.

In whipping Kansas, 9-0, the Huskers showed us they are going to be mighty tough in Big Seven competition from now on. Consider that little old Drake topped the Cyclones; then consider again that beating Iowa State at Ames is a tremendous task. It comes up like this:

Nebraska 19, Iowa State 14—The Cyclones have the more diversified offense, but the Huskers have the better line. In such a case, we'll always bet on the line, especially when two such tackles as Jerry Minnick and Ted Connor are part of it. If Iowa State's dangerous passing game jells, look out, you Huskers! Nebraska's running game, if Jon McWilliams continues to exude the bright promise shown against Kansas, also looks a bit stronger.

Did Dykes Prefer Golf Over Baseball?

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — There aren't four better managers in the major leagues than Jimmy Dykes.

Who says so? Not Dykes himself, nor his wife nor any of his kinfolk. The tribute comes from the man who just fired Dykes as manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, Roy Mack.

The obvious question then is why was Dykes fired and Eddie Joost named in his place.

The answer as gathered from a luncheon chat with Roy Mack is that Dykes spent too much time following the wrong kind of ball. Dykes, it seems, was so devoted to golf he slighted the Philadelphia Athletics. So said Mack.

The executive vice president of the Athletics agreed that Dykes wasn't responsible for Bobby Shantz tearing loose a tendon in his pitching arm; Dykes wasn't responsible for the injury that sidelined Joost from June 19 to the end of the season; nor was he to blame for the fading of Harry Byrd as an effective pitcher.

Mack admitted, too, that Dykes didn't inject bursitis into the good left arm of Alex Kellner, and that Dykes didn't put lead in the shoes of the slowest team in the big leagues. Dykes didn't push Elmer Valo into a fence and disable him for most of the season, nor did he break Third Baseman Hal Edevan's leg.

"Dykes is 'rill one of the best managers in the business," said Mack.

Why then did you fire him? he was asked.

"Well, we needed a change, some younger blood at the helm. Dykes is 56 and Joost is only 37," said Roy.

Why not change the players instead of the manager?

No answer.

What else was wrong with Dykes?

Mack thought a minute and said:

"Well, I can remember one day when they had to go look for Jimmy in the clubhouse to get our lineup for a game. He should have been on the bench. Anyway, we need some new blood at the helm."

What else?

"Well, I don't think a manager should play 18 holes of golf every day and come into the clubhouse at night all tired out. And anyway, we need some new blood at the helm."

About that time the waiter arrived with the chicken, and Joost, blood rushing to his head from all the excitement, took over.

A personable guy, a good ball player and definitely good managerial timber, Joost promised to bring Philadelphia a contending ball club with the help of Roy and Earle Mack.

Sooners' Roberts Is Top All-American Prospect

By BOB HOOBING

NEW YORK (AP)—Oklahoma's J. D. Roberts, Notre Dame's Art Hunter and Baylor's Jim Smith are leading All-American line men candidates because of the smooth transition they've made from platoon specialists to all-purpose performers.

Preliminary reports from Associated Press regional All-American boards indicate Roberts, outstanding on defense in '52, has now become one of the nation's best blocking guards. When Oklahoma rushed for 537 yards to defeat Kansas 45-0, much of the yardage was made through paths hewn by Roberts and tackle-mate Roger Nelson, another highly-recommended candidate.

Southern California's George Timberlake boasts a similar success story. Timberlake, a defensive man last year, has plenty of support from West Coast boards as a great guard in the one-plate game. Washington's Milt Bohar, UCLA's Jim Salsbury and Hardiman Cureton and Utah's Jim Durrant are other western guards drawing special praise.

Crawford Mims of Mississippi, George Atkins of Auburn and Kentucky's Ray Correll are getting the mention from the south along with Tulane's underrated Tony Sardisco whom some scouts consider the best guard in the southeast. Duke's Bobby Burrows and Georgia Tech's Franklin Brooks also get a nod.

Head Coach Frank Leahy returned to Notre Dame's football field Thursday after an illness-caused absence of 13 days.

The Irish coach's stay on the practice field was limited to one hour by his doctor, but Leahy said he was completely recovered from an acute attack of pancreatitis which caused his collapse at halftime of the Georgia Tech game Oct. 24.

The unbeaten Irish, top team in the Associated Press national poll, leave today to face Penn at Philadelphia Saturday. Assistant Coach Joe McArdle was in charge in Leahy's absence during which the Irish won their fifth straight over Navy, 38-7, last Saturday.

Crete Ends Season With 19-0 Victory

Lincoln Star Special

CRETE—The Crete grid team ended its season on a successful note here Thursday night by defeating Sutton 19-0 in a Trans-Nebraska Conference contest.

Crete scored first in the opening quarter when Larry Roth went over from one yard out to cap a 64-yard drive. The kick by Kick Steiner was good.

The second score came in the second period on an 11-yard Roth-Melvin Emigh pass. The final score came in the third period when Terry Hokenstad went over after a drive covering 66 yards.

Halfback Bob Ebehard and Fullback Larry Kimmernans were stand-outs for the Sutton crew.

Young Will Open Drive For Crown

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Paddy Young, beaten by Bobo Olson for the American middleweight title in his last start, opens a new drive tonight against Sammy Giuliani of Stamford, Conn.

The 10-round bout will be carried on network radio (ABC) and television (NBC) at 9 p.m. (CST) from St. Nicholas Arena because the horse show has taken over Madison Square Garden.

Paddy seems to get mixed up with the horse set. To get ready for Olson, June 1, he trained at a d.c. ranch near Glens Falls, N.Y.

Young's manager, Harry Stuckevers, has convinced him he must be more active to make (1) money and (2) progress in the 160-pound class.

"I'm through taking it easy," Young said. "I've always been a workhorse. I want another shot at Olson and I'll fight anybody to get it."

Giuliani, a 4-to-1 underdog, is a rugged customer who may be remembered for a free slugging scrap with Vince Martinez at the Garden a year ago. Only 21, Giuliani has a 29-8-1 record for 38 pro fights since he started in 1950. He has won four of five this year, losing only to Chuck Davey on a tenth round technical knockout, April 29 at Detroit.

The record books show Young fought only once in 1952, a 10-round victory over Ernie Durando, and only twice this year. He whipped Durando in a 12-round elimination bout to earn the Olson scrap, March 27. Then he lost to Olson on a unanimous decision in 15 rounds.

Olson was too much fighter for Young to handle that night although the 25-year-old blond from New York's Greenwich Village was still winging away with his left hook at the end.

The left hook to the body or head is Paddy's chief weapon.

Pee Wee Doesn't Want Manager Job

NEW YORK (AP)—Buzzy Bavasi, vice president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said Thursday night he doesn't think Pee Wee Reese wants to be player-manager for the Dodgers in 1954.

"Of course, if those are his wishes we certainly would respect them," Bavasi said.

The Brooklyn official added that Reese, stellar shortstop for the National League champions, never has been offered the job officially.

"I talked with him for about an hour in Columbus last week," Bavasi said. "He didn't say yes and he didn't say no but it was my impression he was not interested in being a player-manager."

Bavasi was asked if the Dodgers had considered hiring Reese as a bench manager.

"Who would play shortstop for us?" he countered.

The Dodger job became vacant in mid-October when the club and Charley Dressen were unable to agree on the length of a new contract. Dressen wanted three years or a minimum of two. President Walter O'Malley stood firm on an offer of a one year deal. Dressen later signed a three-year contract with Oakland of the Pacific Coast League.

Reese has been considered the outstanding candidate for the Brooklyn post, despite his complete lack of managerial experience.

Training Phase Ended

SUMMIT, N.J. (AP)—Welterweight Champion Kid Gavilan Thursday completed his Eastern training for his title defense against Johnny Bratton in Chicago, Nov. 13.

Gavilan boxed six rounds with Johnny Loefer, Stonewall Jackson and Andy Figueroa in his 11th sparring session at Ehsan's Camp.

Mid-Atlantic experts are very high on Maryland's Stan Jones and Teammate Bob Morgan, who spearheaded one of the nation's best lines. Bob Bartholomew, Wake Forest's sophomore sensation, Duke's Ed Meadows and Houston's Buddy Gilliez have received prominent mention.

Kitzelman Off Ames List; Paulson Listed At Guard

By NORRIS ANDERSON
Sports Editor, The Star

Minus Max Kitzelman, 230-pound powerhouse guard, the Nebraska football squad will depart today for Iowa State.

Kitzelman, who sprained an ankle during the Wednesday scrimmage, was left home after the medicals decided to slap the ankle in a cast. There were no breaks, only a swelling.

Big Max is expected to be available for the final two games against Colorado and Oklahoma. His place in the starting lineup at Ames Saturday will be taken by Jerry Paulson, 180-pound senior from Dell Rapids, S. D.

Paulson, a starter in 1952, has been used only sparingly this year.

Along with Paulson, the Nebraska starting lineup will include Bill Schaeffer and Andy Loefer, ends; Ted Connor and Jerry Minnick, tackles; Bob Wagner, guard; Bob Oberlin, center; John Bordogna, quarterback; Bob Smith and Jon McWilliams, halfbacks; and Ray Novak, fullback. This is the same lineup that started against Kansas Saturday with the exception of Kitzelman.

An overall offense and defense polishing was the Thursday program.

The Husker squad will arrive in Des Moines in time for a 3:20 p.m. workout at the Drake Stadium today. Glassford will headquarter his wards in Des Moines, putting them on a bus for Ames three hours before game time.

Over Glassford's vivid protests, the Huskers remain seven-point favorites.

"We'll be plenty lucky to win by one point," said the Husker coach.

Is This Shades Of Red Grange?

Michigan To Give Caroline Stern Test

By JERRY LISK
CHICAGO (AP) — If any foe is an authority on phenomenal Illinois halfbacks, it is Michigan which Saturday will ponder the football case of J. C. Caroline vs. Red Grange.

It was against Michigan 29 years ago that Grange meted out to everlasting athletic glory with what still ranks as the greatest ball-carrying exhibition in the game's history.

Illini partisans now say the equal to the legendary Grange now gallops on Memorial Stadium turf in the person of Caroline, a lanky, lithe Negro who leads the nation in rushing.

The real business on hand before a capacity 71,119 at Memorial Stadium Saturday, of course, will be an effort by Michigan to smash the unbeaten record of the Big Ten's "fooler" team of the season.

Since an opening 21-21 tie with Nebraska, Illinois has defeated Stanford (35-21), Ohio State (41-20), Minnesota (27-17), Syracuse (20-13) and Purdue (21-0).

Thus a team unanimously relegated to the second division in pre-season reckoning is in complete control of the conference race with a 3-0 record.

Michigan well knows Caroline has been the key man in the surprising Illini success. He already has established a modern school rushing record of 891 yards. He has added 204 yards through pass receptions and kickoff and punt returns.

That leaves the swift, loping runner from Columbia, S. C., only 165 yards behind the all-time Illinois record of 1,260 yards established by Grange in 1923.

Scoring is a different story. Caroline's season effort of four touchdowns — three of them on spectacular long runs — don't even match the five Grange scored in his one dramatic display against Michigan on Oct. 18, 1924.

Old Michigan men will never forget that day the proud Wolverines came to dedicate Memorial Stadium and instead found themselves dedicated to one of football's immortal feats.

Grange scored four touchdowns in 12 minutes, all on long runs and the first on the opening kickoff. He was withdrawn after the first quarter, but returned in the third period for another touchdown run and also passed to a sixth touchdown.

There is a lot of the Grange style in Caroline's running. J. C.'s hips weave, his knees flail and he needs only a little daylight to swoop into the clear.

None of the current Michigan players was yet born when Grange personally annihilated the Maize and Blue.

But they've heard enough folklore about the Galloping Ghost to make Caroline really earn his comparison with Grange come Saturday afternoon.

8-Count Rule Out For Gavilan Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—Unless the Illinois state athletic commission changes its mind in the next few days, there will be no mandatory 8-count knockdown rule in the welterweight title bout between Champion Kid Gavilan and Johnny Bratton a week from tonight.

The National Boxing Association recently announced the 8-count rule, usually observed only in non-title fights, now must prevail also for championship bouts.

Livingston Osborne, commission chairman, said Thursday his group probably would not change to the mandatory count on such short notice.

However, there are two other members and if the subject comes up at our next two meetings — Friday and Monday — I can't say what the result might be.

The 8-count rule is being waived for the Jimmy Carter-Armand Savoie lightweight title fight in Montreal next Wednesday.

Promoter Adam Krieger announced today that Vern Gagne, the world's wrestling champion, will play a return engagement at the fairgrounds Thursday night.

Gagne drew a crowd of 3,386 to the fairgrounds Tuesday when he won a close decision from Pat O'Connor. The crowd included people from 25 counties.

"I've had so many calls and letters to get Gagne back that I sent a special wire to Chicago to him," Krieger said. "He couldn't make it on a Tuesday, but he had an open date Thursday."

Gagne's opponent will be Bob Orton of Kansas City, a former Missouri football giant.

Two Seniors In Wesleyan Grid Final

Two Nebraska Wesleyan University seniors will wrap up their gridiron careers when the Plainsmen face Midland college at Fremont Saturday night.

They are Gordon Marts, Nebraska City senior who has served as captain of the team this fall and Dick Nagele of Lincoln. Each is an end.

Marts broke into the Plainsman starting lineup as a freshman when Coach Roy Robertson's squad developed a rash of end woes, and has improved consistently each year. Last season he was an all Nebraska College Conference choice. He will have earned four varsity numerals by the end of this season.

Nagele, seeking his third "W", has been a starter most of the way this year despite injuries which slowed him during the early part of the season.

Robertson drilled his charges lightly Wednesday in an effort to prevent any last minute injuries.

"Outside of Marvin Macy, we should be at our best physical strength in five weeks," Robertson said. "We won't take any chances on injuring a boy at this stage of the game. If we win this one, we can still end the season with a 500 record."

Robertson said Elaine Rieke, Burlington, Ia., guard, will join Marts as co-captain for the Midland tilt.

Overhauling the NEWS

We see where President Eisenhower is casting a cold official optic on government workers who are called in on Communist investigations... and take refuge in the 5th Amendment. "Ike" says that anybody who refuses to testify on the grounds that it might incriminate him doesn't belong in a government job. Off-hand, we can't even think of any place he does belong... this side of the iron curtain.

Anyway, the President says anyone who hides behind the 5th will get the Deep Six. In other words, he has punched his last official government time clock. This makes sense. If anybody has to cover up his activities he has no right representing folks who believe in the U.S.A. It's bad enough having the government in the red... without having Reds in the government.

Britain To Seek Meeting With Russia At Any Level

Eden Says 'Our Doors' To Stay Open For Peace

LONDON (AP) — Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden said Thursday Britain will seek talks with the Soviet Union at any level despite what he called Russia's "fundamental hostility to the Western Nations."

In a review of world affairs, Eden told the House of Commons there has been "some relaxation" of Soviet tension with the free world since Stalin's death.

This is encouraging as far as it goes, he said.

Eden asserted the latest Russian note, a 4,500-word document delivered Wednesday, absolutely turned down the Western Big Three's offer of foreign ministers' talks with the Russians on Germany and Austria.

He said the Soviet reply laid down unacceptable pre-conditions which would "destroy all our defensive arrangements altogether."

"Any Time"

"Despite this setback and this note," he said, "we, for our part remain prepared to discuss Germany and Austria with the Soviet government at any time and at any place and without any prior conditions at all."

There were loud cheers from both sides of Commons.

Eden wound up his address saying:

"The House will see that, despite the disappointments, our broad purpose remains unchanged. If others choose to slam their doors, to barricade them, ours will remain open. Talks on any level remain our objective, for our work is a work for peace which we shall not abandon."

Shurhill Agrees

Prime Minister Churchill, who since last May 11 has sought "friendly, informal" talks between the world leaders, sat behind Eden as he spoke, often nodding vigorously in agreement.

Laborites, who have accused the Churchill government of failing to insist on top level talks with Russia despite United States objections, quickly attacked Eden's statement.

In Washington, U.S. officials who have been studying Russia's new note suggested privately that it marks the end of a brief but hopeful era in East-West relations that began with Stalin's death.

Eisenhower and Dulles apparently despair of negotiating major problems with the Russians at any time soon on an acceptable basis. The President said the Russians set up "impossible conditions."

Widowed Blonde, Drummer Charged In Alaska Slaying

SEATTLE (INS)—A newly widowed blonde beauty was released on $5,000 bond Thursday on a charge she and a Negro jazz drummer murdered her wealthy husband.

Sleek, fur-clad Mrs. Diane Wells, 31, appeared before U.S. Commissioner John A. Burns, saying not a word while her Seattle attorney effected her release on orders of an Alaska court.

She was turned loose on condition that "on or before Nov. 23" she be in Fairbanks, Alaska, where she and Johnny Warren, 33, are charged with the premeditated murder of her husband, Cecil, 51.

Warren, meantime, was quoted by Oakland, Calif., police as saying in a 23-page typewritten statement that he had "intimate relations" with Mrs. Wells.

Warren, who said he has a wife in Fairbanks, told Oakland police they had held several trysts "at the apartment of a friend."

The drummer was quoted as saying: "I got the idea from advances she made to me when I was working" as a musician at the Fairbanks Golf and Country Club.

Warren was arrested on a federal warrant at his sister's home in Oakland. He is being held pending a hearing Tuesday on his removal to Alaska.

The beautiful blonde was arrested in Seattle Tuesday when she stepped off a plane from Fairbanks with her son, Marquand, 4.

No Interpreter Needed

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (INS)—Augustin Sabella claimed he had no speaking knowledge of English so the court appointed a Mexican interpreter for his trial on a second degree murder charge. When the trial began, Prosecuting Attorney John Downes produced a tape recording and claimed it was Sabella's statement to police. It was in English.

Socialite Asks Divorce From N.Y. Debutante

LONDON (AP) — Robert Sweeney, 42, international socialite and winner of the 1937 British amateur golf championship, filed for divorce Thursday from Mrs. Joanne Sweeney—"New York's most beautiful debutante of 1948."

The petition cited as co-respondent Porfirio Rubirosa, 40, ex-husband of three of the world's most wealthy, beautiful, and famous women—American tobacco heiress Doris Duke, French film actress Danielle Darrieux and Flor De Oro Trujillo, daughter of the former president of the Dominican Republic.

Mrs. Sweeney, 22, is the former Joanne Connolly. She and Sweeney were married in Palm Beach in March 1949.

Petition Dismissed In Crescent-Elgin Watch Price Suit

Federal District Court Judge John Delehant has signed an order dismissing with prejudice the Crescent Jewelers Co.'s petition for damages against the Elgin National Watch Co.

The parties stipulated an out-of-court settlement had been reached in the plaintiff's case which sought damages for alleged business loss during the 1952 holiday season when Crescent was temporarily enjoined by the Lancaster District Court from selling Elgin watches.

Still pending before Federal Court is the cross-petition of Elgin seeking to permanently enjoin Crescent from selling Elgin watches below Elgin-set prices.

'Control' Of Minor Employees Studied By Liquor Board

The State Liquor Commission is considering a means of "control" of minors working in licensed establishments.

Chairman Tal Conrad said that the commission is thinking of adopting a rule which would impose on the licensee the responsibility of never permitting a minor to work in an establishment "without the supervision of a qualified adult."

Attorney General C. S. Beck, in response to a commission query, has ruled that handling liquor by a minor in connection with his employment does not constitute illegal possession.

Conrad said there are 347 minors employed in 279 establishments according to his latest count. About 10 per cent of all licensees have minors in their employment, he said. In many cases the minors are sons or daughters of the licensee.

This stamp is the government's way of helping you to know MEAT QUALITY!

The only impartial grading of meat for quality is that done by graders licensed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. U.S.D.A. graders use a stamp in the shape of a shield—like the one shown above—to indicate grades. All beef cuts sold at your Safeway are from meat that has been government-graded and stamped "USDA CHOICE." Only beef of top eating-quality gets this grade.

Not all stores sell government-graded beef. Don't be misled by the government's round stamp. The round stamp shows that the meat has been inspected and passed as wholesome food...but it tells nothing about the meat's tenderness and flavor. Also bear in mind that the government doesn't use alphabet letters for grading meat. So-called grades "AA" and "A" are not government meat grades.

"USDA CHOICE" is a top government meat grade—the quality of beef you buy at Safeway. Today, start doing your meat-shopping the surest way of all—buy beef impartially graded by U.S.D.A. meat graders. Come in for your favorite cuts...have the satisfaction of knowing the meat you buy is top quality.

St. Lawrence Power Project Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Thursday gave New York state final authority to join with Canada in constructing a 600 million dollar St. Lawrence River project that will produce more than 12 billion kilowatt hours of energy a year.

Pearson

The controversial St. Lawrence Seaway is not involved, directly at least, in the power project. Eisenhower, through the signing of an executive order, designated the New York State Power Authority as the American partner in the construction and administration of the giant project.

participation have been filed in petitions to the U. S. Court of Appeals by the Pennsylvania Coal Producers Association, the Lake Ontario Land Development & Beach Protective Association, and by the Public Power & Water Corp., Trenton, N. J.

Lawrence Seaway, will be built in the International Rapids section of the river, between Massena, N. Y., and Cornwall, Ont. Energy from the power project will be divided equally between New York and Ontario. New York, in turn, must make available a "fair share" of the power to neighboring states within a geographical transmission distance.

The power project, a necessary preliminary for possible construction of the long-delayed St. Lawrence Seaway, will be distributed in an area that is "hungry" for additional power.

The third annual Social Work Day, to be held Friday at the University of Nebraska, is expected to draw more than 150 college students from the state interested in a career in social work.

Miss Burton Heads Catholic Nurses

Frances Burton has been elected president of the Lincoln Diocesan Council of Catholic Nurses.

Other new officers are: Mrs. Nina O'Brien, vice president; Mary Kerth, treasurer; Mary Ann Ekeir, recording secretary; Clara Fleming, corresponding secretary; and Sister Martha and Lenora Grothe, directors.

Dr. Frank Glick, director of the university's school of social work, will speak on "The Education of a Social Worker."

State October Rail Crossing Mishaps Set Record As 8 Die

Eight Nebraskans died in rail-road crossing traffic accidents in October—an all time high for one month and equalling the total for the first nine months of 1953, the State Safety Patrol reported Thursday.

The total for the month was 40. This made it the third high month of the year thus far. The breakdown showed 14 deaths in two car accidents, 11 in one car accidents, six pedestrians and one tractor operator killed in addition to the crossing deaths.

Sanders Disturbed
Col. C. J. Sanders was disturbed over the 11 one car deaths and commented "the other fellow" has always received most of the blame for the cause of traffic accidents, but this excuse can't be used for October's 11 one car traffic deaths. Those 11 deaths brought the total for the year of one car deaths to 86—one-third of the total for the year.

And for the second straight month, county roads again claimed a big toll. There were 14 deaths on these roads in October, raising the year's toll to 73.

"These facts should make it obvious that anyone might become the victim of any type of traffic death. We as motor vehicle operators must realize that the traffic problem is not just for the police to solve, but that it is a problem for all of us," Col. Sanders declared.

Farm Group Resolutions Are Studied

Representatives from the 60 county organizations of the Nebraska Farm Bureau Federation opened a two-day meeting here Thursday to thrash out policy resolutions for presentation to the state Farm Bureau convention in Lincoln Nov. 22-25.

Upward of 150 county resolutions covering international, national and state issues were dumped into the general hopper. Those, session spokesmen said, will be combined and edited into some 50 final resolutions.

State Bureau President Charles C. Marshall said no conflict was in evidence between Nebraska grass roots feeling and national Farm Bureau positions, and he looked forward to the pre-convention session as one of harmony and regularity.

Revamping Defended
Prior to settling down to work on resolutions the representatives heard Dr. George Condra, director of the state conservation and survey division, defend agriculture Secretary Benson's reorganization of the Soil Conservation Service. Condra said that the change will not hinder the program and forecast satisfactory co-ordination between states despite the elimination of the regional SCS agencies.

Although Parr Young, chairman of the State PMA Committee was unable to attend the session, he sent a statement suggesting a change in current legislation preventing the Commodity Credit Corporation from disposing of grain except on a cost plus basis. Permission to sell at the market price would pinpoint supplies to needs and prevent waste through deterioration from overly-long storage, he said.

The recent state law for brucellosis eradication was analyzed by Dr. J. L. George, state veterinarian who recommended the basic principles of the law, but criticized its requirement of a 95 per cent agreement of the owners in a treatment area before action. The percentage, he said, was too high.

A stronger program of research and education in agriculture, plus more funds for the extension service and resident teaching at the agricultural college were advocated in a message from Dean W. V. Lambert of the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture delivered by Ephraim Hixson, director of resident teaching at the college.

ONE MAN'S OPINION By Walter Kiernan

One fellow came out of a booth and said, "I can't find O'Dwyer's name on the ballot." The election inspector said, "That's all right... you won't find it in the phone book either."

The majority of New York used to be a job-baiting force to get... this year it looked like they fought to stay out of it.

One more like this and they may have to hire a city manager through classified ads and the ad better not give the name of the town... just say "Octopus City, heavily in debt, strangled by traffic, milked by mobs."

U.S. Acts To Discourage 'Chiseling' On Vet Hospitals

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government Thursday moved to discourage veterans from seeking free hospital treatment for non-service-connected ailments when they can afford to pay.

The Veterans Administration announced that such veterans hereafter will be required to disclose their financial status.

The announcement followed considerable criticism by members of Congress and by the American Medical Association against the VA's free medical service to veterans whose ailments do not stem from their service in uniform.

Up to now, these veterans only had to state they couldn't pay in order to get free hospitalization.

Full Details

Now they must give full details about their finances. The VA must still give them hospitalization even if they have a million dollars, but they leave themselves open to possible action for filing a false statement of inability to pay.

"The VA emphasized that the additional information (about finances) is designed to protect applicants and veterans generally from charges of 'chiseling' on the government by signing a false statement of inability to defray the necessary expenses of hospitalization or domiciliary care," the announcement said.

The statement also disclosed that Chief Medical Director Joel P. Boone wrote a "personal and confidential letter" last March 27 to all VA managers and area medical directors instructing them to report "all cases which clearly indicate the statement as to inability to defray expenses of hospitalization is false."

Among questions to be asked applicants from now on are: The current value of the applicant's real and personal property; What ready assets he has in cash, savings, bonds, etc.; What are his average monthly expenditures and his average monthly income for the past six months.

Roessler, Top Secret Agent, Is Sentenced

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

LUZERN, Switzerland (AP)—Rudolf Roessler, recognized by East and West as one of the world's best secret agents, was sentenced Thursday to a year in prison. Roessler smiled bitterly.

The counter-espionage services of a half dozen nations probably would give much to know what lay behind that smile. The sources of his information remain as much a mystery today as they were in World War II, when he provided Russia with an almost daily report on the German order of battle.

160 Detailed Reports

After the war, he turned his attention to Western defense measures. During the past six years, he admitted in court, he had sent about 160 of his intricately detailed reports of the intelligence service of Communist Czechoslovakia.

Though this service was not directed against Switzerland, it nevertheless violated Swiss neutrality laws, resulting in his conviction. If he had spied against Switzerland, he would have been liable to life imprisonment.

The five judges of the Federal Court seemed intrigued by the mild mannered, myopic little man's explanation of his motives. It was not for the $11,000 or so he received from the Czechs in the past six years, he said, but to combat "the revival of German militarism, which is certain to lead to war."

Tears In Eyes

With tears in his eyes, Roessler told of his suffering at the hands of the Nazis before the war and of the "lies and vituperation now hurled at me by those very people, back in their positions of power."

Roessler's contact man, former Swiss secret agent Dr. Xavier Schnieper, was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment in the same court. Schnieper sent or carried Roessler's reports to cover addresses in Switzerland, Austria, Germany and Czechoslovakia.

Return From Israel

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—A German court Thursday sentenced 35 European Jews from Israel to serve 6 to 14 days in jail for illegal entry and said they would be expelled after serving the terms. The men were among 67 arrested on charges of returning to Germany illegally. The others face a court hearing. They said they had emigrated to Israel within the last year but returned to Germany because they could not adapt themselves to conditions there.
